

Liberty Intermediate School Parent Teacher Organization School Year 2020-2021 PTO Membership Form

The Liberty Intermediate School (LIS) PTO provides support to the scholastic and extracurricular programs of LIS. We organize special events for students and their families and coordinate fundraising activities.

Annually, the LIS PTO donates numerous volunteer hours and thousands of dollars to school projects, events, and equipment purchases to benefit LIS students. Our PTO is a success because of the active participation of teachers and families in our school.

Your membership includes:

- 10% OFF Spirit Wear,
- A Tiger Paw on your Spirit Wear,
- and Freebies for your student at Events.

Show your support for the LIS PTO and become a member today!

Volunteer Opportunities:

The PTO is always looking for willing volunteers to help with daily needs at the school and special events. If you would like to get involved, please look over the PTO Volunteer Interest Survey on the backside to find out how you can help. Whether you have one hour or fifty hours we would love you to help in any way possible. Volunteering is not a requirement of membership but it is always appreciated and is a rewarding way to support your child at school!

Return this form and your $10.00 annual family membership fee to the LIS school office.
Address envelope to LIS PTO.

Please Check the areas below where you would like to get involved. From chairing a yearlong committee, to overseeing a single project, to helping with a one-time event, the LIS PTO needs your help to continue to provide these worthwhile programs and benefits for our children, teachers, and school community. The PTO can't do it without you. Thanks for doing your part!
